IMPORTANT!
KEEP THIS GUIDE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE.

For your safety, READ ALL INSTRUCTIONS AND CAUTIONS THROUGHLY BEFORE USING THE SLING.

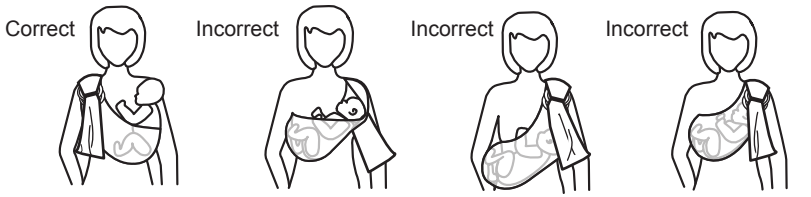
⚠ WARNING

•Follow recommended age and weight for each carrying position.
Tummy-to-Tummy position : 10 days - 24 months / 3.5kg - 13kg.
Side Carrying Position : 6 months - 36 months / 7kg - 15kg.
•When in the sling, your baby must be supported with your hand.
Pay attention to your baby's responsivenesswhile in the sling.
•Ensure your baby does not curl into " a C position with the chin resting on or near the chest".The position can interfere with breathing, even if nothing is covering the nose or mouth.
•Do not use this sling if your baby's movement could negatively affect your balance.
•Avoid use near fire.
•Prior to using this sling, please examine for any damage, breaking or fraying. If damaged, do not use this carrier.
。Be aware of any accessories such as belt, earings, or other jewelry that could cause damage while putting on or removing the sling.
•Do not use this sling if you have any physical or health problems including but not limited to musclar, circulatory, or skeletal issues, balance issues or history of dizziness, or history of back pain, or leg pain.
•Do not use this sling for a child with disabilities. Please consult with your physician prior to use of this sling.
•User must be sure that this sling for other purpose.
•Your balance may be adversely affected by your movement and thatof your child.
•Take care when bending or leaning forward.
•This sling is not suitable for use during sports activities.
•SUFFOCATION HAZARD
Ensure your child's face is not pressed against the fabric of the sling or your body. (Ensure the infant's face is above the fabric, visible, and free from obsuructions at all times.)
•Ensure your child's chin is not positioned onto its chest as its breathing may be restricted at all times.

•Seek medical advise if your child is premature, has a low birth weight, breathing difficulties or is any way unwell before using the sling.
(Babies at great risk of suffocation include those born prematurely, this with repiratory problems and those under six months of age.)
•Be sure to keep the good head posture for children under 4 months.
•Ensure that your child is securely positioned in the sling.

⚠ CAUTION

•We do not recommended to use any carrier for 30 minutes after feeding. (Doing so may put pressure on his/her stomach.)
•Be aware that continuous use for a long time may harm your health.
•The user's visibility and balance may become adversely affected. Use the sling with caution.
•If the sling is wet due to water or sweat, the friction may cause dye transfer.
•Follow appropriate disposal guidelines for disposal of this product.
•Do not place more than one child in the sling.
•Do not use this sling during cooking.
•Avoid use near fire, stove or other heating devices.
•Please take special carre with hot drinks when wearing the sling as spilling will burn or scald your baby.
•Please note the increased risk of your child falling out of the sling since he/she becomes more active as they grow.



Upright(optimal) Chin up, Face visible Nose and mouth free.

Baby's legs are pressured and might cause hip displasia.

Baby is too low. Face pressed tight against wearer.

Baby is hunched with chin touching chest, face covered.

WASHING INSTRUCTIONS

Gentle machine wash in washing bag. Use mild detergent in 104 °F/40℃ water.
Do not use chlorine bleach or fabric softerner.
Gently rinse and reshape the carrier. Lay flat to dry in shafe.
Wash separately. Do not iron, dry clean or dry in the dryer.