Messeage from Lucky

One of the first things you will do as a parent is carrying and holding your baby. Sometimes, in those early months, it is the only thing that will calm down them. Maru sling helps you to provide the comfort baby needs while giving you the chance to actually get some oher things done...as well we all know how much there is to be done once a baby arrives.
Lucky has been manufacturing baby carriers in Japan for 83 years constantly striving to create the best in baby carriers and slings for baby and their parents.

We hope you enjoy your sling!

Lucky
SINCE 1934 JAPAN

A precious baby is born.
The first communication with your baby is “hug”.

A newborn baby can not see the world yet.
So, a “hug” is the best way to show your love.

Baby starts to grow,
but still wants mummy and daddy to hug
as they understand “touching and attachment is the key to their comfort and happiness.”

Baby carriers and slings are tools to tell your love to your baby.

Lucky will bring happiness to you and your baby
with our comfortable baby slings and carriers.
