GEM ESSENCE

My heart is always filled with unconditional love

This beautiful crystal has generously & lovingly taken part in the creation of this magical gem essence.

Rhodochrosites have been associated with the rose, a symbol of love that can be traced back to the Incas who once called them “Inca Rose”. According to legend, these pink crystals formed the blood of their royalty.

They are excellent crystals for matters of the heart – from attracting love, healing heartbreak to experiencing the love for self and for all. Sweet and gentle, they are the tokens of unconditional love, guiding you to let love guide your thoughts and actions – full of compassion, forgiveness & grace.

Let them remind you that an important aspect of love is to take care of yourself first & foremost before tending to the needs of others. Embrace their soothing & calming energy to help you let go of trauma, anguish & pain that has gripped your heart.

When these old emotional wounds have dissolved, may they guide you to rekindle your relationship with your playful inner child – nourishing and opening your heart once again to love, to trust in new beginnings and to bring amazing transformation in the way you view yourself & love for the world.
